The steamer Liberty brings Havanna dates of the 28th.

Troops were constantly arriving from St. Domingo, and by this time the island is, completely evacuated by the Opassels troops. The Spainards blew up all the fornifications they had constructed before It was said a treaty was made protecting those Dominicans who assisted the Spaniards, but the numbers of such families arriving at Havanna shows how much faith was put in such a treaty. They will be considered traitors by the Dominicans, and Advices from Hay I represent the rebol-lion as gaining strength, and that Presi-dent Geffraud had suffered reverses.

From Muxico it is reported that the their treatment can be imagined. bands of guerrillas are increasing in all

The Peet Office Department has again advertised for proposals for carrying the mails by steamship between the United Copy Montery.

It was reported in Vera Cruz that forces, it was reported in Vera Cruz that forces, had been sent to Tampico, where an attack by Juares treeps, reinforced by American contents, was expected.
